1. For States with federally administered optional supplementation, the number of people receiving payments was estimated from a December 1996, 10-percent sample of persons scheduled to receive payments in January 1998.
2. Data on living arrangements not available.
3. Data on eligibility categories by living arrangements not available.
4. Data on eligibility categories not available.
5. Iowa does not supplement the aged and disabled in these living arrangements. In this table the 100 recipients classified as aged and disabled are eligible for SSI on the basis of their age or disability, but their eligibility for State-supplementation is based on their blindness.
6. Nevada does not supplement the disabled. In this table, the recipients classified as disabled are eligible for Federal SSI on the basis of their disability, but their eligibility for State-supplementation is based either on age or on blindness.
7. Of these recipients, 8,514 receive an additional State-administered supplement.
8. Includes some recipients in room and board facilities.
9. The State provides optional supplementation for couples only.
10. Based on cases with State-supplementation by living arrangement and area, January 1998.
